

Waterford City Rugby Club – Club Notes

08/11/2015

Under 16's Dungarvan (5) v Waterford city (24)

City travelled to Dungarvan on Saturday for this u/16 league game. In difficult, wet and windy conditions both sides made many mistakes in the first half, with Dungarvan creating the better chances. At half time the score remained 0-0. City made a few changes and at the start of the second half scored the first try, after many drives into Dungarvan's 22 Sean Walsh went over. Tom Carney converted from a difficult angle. City kept the pressure deep into Dungarvan's 22, and after a few more drives Naoise MacCathmhaoil scored City's second try. Another try scored by Sean Walsh made the score 17-0 to City. With ten minutes remaining city scored their best try, after a fine break by Sean Walsh took him into Dungarvan's 22 he passed to his supporting scrum half Luke Cronin to touch down near the posts. David Glynn converted. To their credit the home side never gave up, and after some good phases of play scored a fine try in the last play of the game. David (Scooby) White, Naoise MacCathmhaoil and man of the match prop Tom Hennessy all had outstanding games.

Tries: Sean Walsh (2), Naoise MacCathmhaoil (1), Luke Cronin (1)

Conversions: Tom Carney (1), David Glynn (1)
